KONTAKION FOR THE PRODIGAL SON (Tone 3)

*(**Special Melody: Today the Virgin**)*

Foolishly I sprang away * from Thy great fatherly glory, * and dispersed in wicked deeds * the riches that Thou didst give me. * With the Prodigal I therefore * cry unto Thee now: * I have sinned against Thee, O compassionate Father. * But receive me in repentance; * make me as one of * Thy hired servants, O Lord.

MAKING GOD REAL
In the Orthodox Christian Home

By Anthony M. Coniaris

Teaching Our Children to Be Good Stewards

After hearing a sermon on stewardship once, a young man said to the pastor, “That’s the trouble with Christianity and the church: it’s always give, give, give!”

The pastor looked at the man and said, “Sir, I want to thank you for giving me the best definition I have yet heard of Christianity.” Indeed, this is the entire record of Christianity: Give! God gave His only Son. “This is my blood. . . this is my body given for you . . . The Son came . . . to give His life as a ransom for many.”

“And shall I keep giving and giving again?” And the angel replied, “No, only keep giving until He stops giving to you.”

The home is the place to teach our children the Christian concept of stewardship.

A woman from a distinguished American family tells how her father taught her Christian stewardship from a very young age:

My father had three little wooden boxes, like piggy banks, and I would put a dime in one for savings and a dime in another for contributions. Then I got another dime. I think I usually spent it on candy. Once a year my father and I would sit down and decide what to do with the money in the contribution box. I would read about the 100 neediest cases in the “Times” (an annual charity for the needy families supported by the New York Times). Some of the stories were so tragic I couldn’t decide which family to send my money to. Father and I would talk about it and about the fact that some families might not get as much money. So I would end up sending a letter telling the “Times” to give my money to the family who needed it the most. They got half the money in the box. The other half went to the church.

What a beautiful way for parents to teach children the responsible use of God’s blessings!

Part 3 of 3

HOUSE BLESSINGS

After celebrating the Feast of Theophany and the Blessing of the Water, starts the season of house blessings. This is an opportunity for the priest to meet every family and to know them more. It also brings the blessing of the church community to each and every household and neighborhood, especially that our homes are the small churches which make up the entire church community. If you are interested in scheduling a house blessing, please contact Fr Luke (frluke@peterpaulpotomac.org). Please consider a time when your entire family is present, especially little and not-so-little children.

2020 PARISH LIFE CONFERENCE

The annual Eastern Diocese Parish Life Conference will take place at the Antiochian Village on June 24-28, 2020. In addition to the visit and service at the grave site of Saint Raphael, events include liturgical services, speakers, social events, the annual Bible Bowl and oratorical contest. ### THE EPISTLE

(For Sunday of the Prodigal Son)

Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous.

The Reading from the First Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians. (6:12-20)

Brethren, all things are lawful for me, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be enslaved by anything. Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food; but God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by His power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that he who joins himself to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, "The two shall become one flesh." But he who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him. Shun immorality. Every other sin which a man commits is outside the body; but the immoral man sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own; you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

THE GOSPEL

(For Sunday of the Prodigal Son)

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke. (15:11-32)

The Lord spoke this parable: "There was a man who had two sons; and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that falls to me.' And he divided his living between them. Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took his journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in loose living. And when he had spent everything, a great famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want. So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would gladly have fed on the pods that the swine ate; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants."' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry. Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what this meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.' But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, 'Lo, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command; yet you never gave me a kid that I might make merry with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed for him the fatted calf!' And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.'"

Commemorations

Orthodox Christians
 Faithful Orthodox fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when they receive Holy Communion in fulfillment of Christ's command to eat His Body and drink His Blood. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, communicants should not be conscious of grave sin, have fasted from the night before taking communion, and seek to live in charity and love with their neighbors. Persons conscious of grave sin must first be reconciled with God and the Church through the Sacrament of Penance (Confession and Absolution). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

Non-Orthodox
 We welcome to this celebration of the Eucharist those Christians who are not fully united with us. It is a consequence of the sad divisions in Christianity that we cannot extend to them a general invitation to receive Communion. Orthodox believe that the Eucharist is an action of the celebrating community signifying a oneness in faith, life, and worship of the community. Reception of the Eucharist by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, and for which we must all pray.

Not Receiving Communion
 Those not receiving sacramental communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another by receiving a piece of blessed bread following the dismissal prayers.

Welcome to Ss. Peter and Paul
 To encourage our worship in a proper spirit of prayer and devotion, we respectfully ask you to enter the sanctuary quietly during the Divine Liturgy.

PLEASE DO NOT ENTER OR EXIT THE SANCTUARY AS

- the clergy censes the sanctuary
- the congregation is standing, or
- during the Little Entrance with the Gospel
- during the Reading of the Epistle and the Gospel
- Please enter the sanctuary upon the completion of the sermon
- the Great Entrance with the Holy Gifts
- the Prayers of Consecration p. 112-113
- the Hymn to the Theotokos "It is Truly Meet"

Please follow the directions of the ushers during Communion and dismissal; refrain from using cell phones in the narthex; and be considerate of those praying and converse in the hall, outside or downstairs.

Visitors
 If you are visiting our parish, please let us get to know you. Complete a visitor card you will find in your pew, and drop it in the ushers tray or the collection box.

OCMC NEWS

Many thanks for the great kindnesses of our parish, $25.25 was donated to OCMC this week. Thank you for your generosity. Some of the money donated goes toward work in helping the Orthodox Church in Guatemala, which has 40,000 members spread across 150 remote and mountainous parishes and has only five priests! So with the support, these priests can train several hundred catechists in villages and towns across Guatemala. While the catechists cannot perform sacraments and are still learning the church, they are the "backbone of the Orthodox Church" and key to its growth there.

Jennifer Rice, a long-term missionary in Guatemala is visiting St. Mary's Orthodox Church in Falls Church this morning. She spoke last evening at a DC Missions Committee Event St. Katherine's and Saturday morning was even with the teens at the Winter Camp at Antiochian Village where the focus this week is missions! Jennifer works closely with the catechists in Guatemala. (While she could not fit in a time to be with us at Ss Peter and Paul, if you have any questions for her, please contact Bosworths, as she is staying with them until tomorrow, and would be glad to meet more people!).
